

I, _____ , Full Name

a participant in the Responsivity Tool Study for Flex Studio of ETH Zürich's Human-Computer Interaction course, am aware that

1. This study involves a screen recording of my interactions with an iPad. Neither my name nor any other identifying information will be associated with the video recording. Only the research team will be able to (view) to the recordings.
2. My in-app activity will be recorded and may be reproduced in whole or in part for use in presentations or written products that result from this study. Neither my name nor any other identifying information (such as my voice or picture) will be used in presentations or in written products resulting from the study.

By signing this form, I give consent to these recordings as part of this research. I also understand that this consent for recording is effective until the following date: Mar 1, 2023. On or before that date, the tapes will be destroyed. I may withdraw my consent at any time by contacting _____@ethz.ch.
